

FASHION DESIGNERS TERMS & CONDITIONS

These Regulations apply to all Fashion Designers who are approved to showcase at any event operated by 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week. It is a condition of such approval that the Fashion Designer accepts and comply with these Regulations and the Fashion Designers Information included on the Website.

By submitting an Application, the Fashion Designers acknowledges and accepts that the Manager may alter any rule or term of the Regulations or Fashion Designers Information, or make additional rules and terms, from time to time, by posting a notice that there is a change to the Regulations on the Website or via email. Any further use of the website, or correspondence sent from the Manager to the Fashion Designers with respect to the amended Regulations, after the date of such notice is deemed acceptance of the new Regulations.

- Entry to the fashion parade is open to establish or aspiring designers.
- Entrants attending the Fashion Show do so at their own expense, no travel or accommodation costs will be covered for interstate/international entrants.
- Entries may be posted, however cost of return must also be covered by the designer and the pieces must be received by the deadline 22nd August 2021.
- Returns must be arranged within 5 days of the event or items will be discarded.
- Clothing, shoes, accessories or any material provided will be returned unwashed or cleaned.
- Entrants will be categorised according to their level of expertise and genre which will then be allocated into the appropriate night.
- Applications close on date 31st May 2021 supplied in the application and Expressions of Interest (EOI) submitted after the closing date will not be considered unless extenuating circumstances prevail, as determined by 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week.
- Submit and/or deliver your design to ADDRESS TBC.
- 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week may use your entry photos, or photos or video of you, your entry and models wearing your design at the Fashion Show event in print or web media, for promotional purposes associated with this event and any future related events. Copyright belongs to the creator of the image or video. The intellectual property for your design remains with you.
- 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week has overall responsibility for the delivery of the parade, and maintains creative, directional, and conceptual control of all event components.
- 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week cannot accept liability for any loss of or damage to designers outfits during the Parade or temporary public displays, or during travel to or from the Fashion Show/ Exhibition or other sites of display. 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week will take all reasonable care to safeguard outfits whilst they are in its custody.
- The details on the Expression of Interest and application form will only be used for the purposes of this competition and the related promotion. Your private information will not be given to any individual or organisation or third party without your prior permission
- Acknowledgement of receipt of your EOI does not guarantee acceptance of your application or any individual, group, association or business in the parade. Acceptance into the parade is at the sole discretion of the 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week. Successful applicants will be issued a letter of acceptance, outlining all event details and requirements associated with the parade by the 4th June 2021.

- Priority for acceptance into the fashion parade will be given to individuals and businesses who meet the selection criteria listed in the application.
- 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week reserves the right to reject an individual, group, or business where there is a conflict of interest with 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week committee objectives, partners or sponsors or there is no adequate evidence to show that the individual, group, association or business will deliver to the quality standard expected by the event to the individual, group, or business does not comply with the Terms and Conditions or requirements of 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week
- Financial assistance from 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week is not available to any individual, group, or business applying through this EOI process.
- Successful applicants must provide business logos and promotional material to 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week as required for display on the day and lead up marketing.
- The descriptions and images provided by the designer for publication in the program and on the event website must not infringe the rights of third parties. The designer shall indemnify 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week against any and all third-party claims in this regard.
- Successful applicants with the prior approval of the 717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week must agree to use the #KALFW logo (minimum) on all event communications and promotions and encourage ticket sales through their own marketing and social media platforms.
- Successful applicants agree to be filmed in video or photographs that may be used for promotional or marketing and re sell purposes. No compensation will be issued other than recognition/acknowledgement of your business
- Throughout the lead up, during and post the event social media exposure via means such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter etc.

EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY

717 Management for Kalgoorlie Fashion Week is not liable for damage, in particular the following:

- Damage to property or financial losses Damage caused by fire, water, explosion, violent attacks, storms or other instances of force majeure
- Damage caused by theft, burglary, breakdown of supply services (such as electricity, gas, water) - Damage incurred as a result of the security regulations under Section 18
- Damage caused by the general public (in particular, by visitors to the event, other participants, persons acting on their behalf or employees of 717 Management)
- Excepted from the exclusion of liability detailed above are property damages and injuries to life, body or health caused by 717 Management due to intent or gross negligence
- Also excepted from exclusion of liability are damages which are customarily insured in the industry and compulsory liability under the Australian Third Party Liability Act.
- 717 Management must be notified of any damage immediately
- It is highly recommended that all Designers have their own public liability insurance.